EXTENDED DANCE & CREATIVE MOVEMENT MINISTRY COSTUME GUIDELINES AND RECOMMENDATIONS

WHEN MINISTERING IN DANCE, ONE MUST COSTUME IN A MANNER THAT DOES NOT DETRACT FROM THE MESSAGE BEING PRESENTED. Using tasteful and modest dress is essential. Below are guidelines to help dancers costume appropriately. When in doubt, err on the side of caution in dance ministry costuming. Costumes do not need to be expensive but should be thought out, ironed, clean, and be an extension of the message.

[Examples: Loose, pink t-shirts with loose jeans and a turquoise headband and sweatshirt tied around the waist for a teen girl hip hop group number, or simple sundress with a color-coordinating, fitted t-shirt underneath and leggings or dark colored tights and dance shorts under the dress and matching flower or ribbon in the hair.]

- 1. NECKLINES: Necklines should be no lower than one credit card depth lower than the collar bone. Blouse or leotard should not gape open when dancer bends forward at a 90-degree angle. If a costume needs more modesty at the neckline, an added scarf, costume trim, or layered camisole can be added.
- 2. SLEEVES AND STRAPS: Sleeves are not required, although they might want to be worn, as sleeves draw an obvious line in dance movement. If a tank-top type costume or leotard is worn, extra care must be taken for modesty under the arm, as well as with undergarments being covered. Tank straps should be one inch thick or wider. To thicken camisole straps, braided material, trim, or a second under layer may be added to the primary costume top. Shrugs or a second layer can also be used to add modesty to a typical ballet or lyrical costume.
- 3. SKIRTS AND SHORTS: Length of skirt/shorts should be no shorter than one credit card height above the top of the knee. Pink ballet tights or coordinating tights should be worn under the skirt. Black tights are also a good selection under a skirt, while adding a black matching accessory such as a belt, hairband, or trim at another place on the costume to maintain artistic continuity. Black dance pants or leggings can also be worn underneath shorter skirts.
- 4. PANTS/CULOTTES: Pants are a nice selection as they show all leg work in choreography well, while also being modest. Black dance/yoga pants are a nice base, while color design and symbolism can be developed with the blouse, accessories, or props. If more modesty is desired in addition to pants or culottes, cloth panels can be added to the front and back or a large scarf or sarong can be wrapped around the waist. Tights and socks should match the pants/culottes, along with shoe color, when possible. Loose sweats or jeans are a nice pants selection for hip-hop dance.
- 5. MATERIAL SELECTION: There are some materials which are nice for dance ministry for both artistic and modesty purposes. Crushed velvet is more modest than traditional lycra. Chiffon and georgette loose blouses from retail stores or websites are a nice selection for lyrical or slow worship dances. Layers add artistic depth, as well as more modesty in upbeat or dramatized dances. Some layers to consider are vests, large t-shirts cut in various ways layered over one another, open cardigan or button-down shirts over a t-shirt or leotard, draped tunics made from simple rectangular or triangular materials in two panels for the front and back of the body.
- 6. GUYS: Jeans, black or khaki pants, or sweats are a nice base while adding a t-shirt, dress shirt, or layered shirts. Socks should match pant color.
- 7. HAIR: Well thought-out hairstyle for young ladies and young men can add a more polished or artistic feel to the dance presentation. For example, for worship lyrical presentation, a soloist or group may choose to all wear hair buns or low ponytails. For a hip-hop number, various braids and hair accessories may be used. For a more uniform look for a group, a hat, scarf, or flower in the hair can be used.
- 8. DRESS REHEARSAL: BEFORE COMPETING OR DANCING BEFORE A CONGREGATION OR AUDIENCE, A FULL-DRESS RUN-THROUGH SHOULD BE DONE TO MAKE CERTAIN ALL COSTUME PIECES ARE GOING TO FUNCTION AND MOVE WELL WITH THE CHOREOGRAPHY AND ACTING. ONE TO THREE ADULTS SHOULD OBSERVE THE RUN-THROUGH TO TAKE NOTE OF ADD-ONS OR CHANGES NEEDED PRIOR TO THE PERFORMANCE

- b) The selection must present a clear biblical message that reflects a personal faith.

B. Sound Checks

- a) All sound checks (90 seconds) will be done prior to presentation

C. Presentation Emphasis

- a) Since it is the purpose of the program to encourage the presentation of music, speeches, art, and writings suitable for use in the worship of the Lord, the FINE ARTS FESTIVAL is confined to the presentation of Christian talent.
- b) All aspects of a presentation, including material, costuming, and movement, are to be consistent with a Christian witness.
- c) CONSIDERATION SHOULD BE GIVEN TO DRESS AND ATTIRE IN ALL AREAS OF COMPETITION PRESENTATION. MODEST DRESS AND ATTIRE SHOULD BE WORN THAT DOES NOT DETRACT FROM THE SPIRITUAL INFLUENCE OF THE PRESENTATION.

 - ii) Be visible to evaluators at all times during performance.
 - iii) A five-point deduction will be assessed if these guidelines are not followed.

E. Contesting a Rule Violation

- a) If an entrant believes a rule has been violated during a ministry presentation, he/she must contest to the venue host, in writing, within one [1] hour of the completion of the category in question, and before the final decision of the evaluators has been announced.
- b) Forms to contest a rule-violation are available from the venue host.
- c) Once the final decision of the evaluators has been announced, no contest will be allowed.
- d) The venue host will inform the DMD/Fine Arts Festival Director of the complaint of the entrant, and the DMD/Fine Arts Festival Director will be responsible for making an ultimate ruling on the matter.
- e) The entry in question will be notified of the ruling and will have one [1] hour in which they may contest the ruling.

- f) The ruling cannot be appealed unless the entrant can clearly show that a WRITTEN RULE has been violated.
- g) Appeals may be made to the next highest level only (i.e., local to conference; conference to national; and national to the Discipleship Ministries Division Council).
- h) Penalty points for rule violation shall be assessed by the venue host to the DMD/Fine Arts Festival Director.

F. Sound System Control

- a) Sound technicians will be allowed to balance the volume level of entrant's with that of their musical accompaniment.
- b) During musical ensemble presentations, all microphones will be adjusted to the same relative volume level.
